Supervisors Grant Quarry Permit

County Board Splits 3 to 2 In Its Decision

Following a discussion as rife with controversy as the long drawn out issue itself, the Board of Supervisors Tuesday granted A. J. McCosker permission to operate a rock quarry in Redwood Canyon.

The supervisors' vote was 3-2, reflecting the hotly-debated issue that has raged for several months and through eight postponements of decision.

"NO" VOTES on the quarry application were cast by Supervisors Warren G. Buchanan of Pittsburg and Jacob Frederickson of Antioch, whose districts are farthest removed from the quarry site.

Both officials contended that there was no immediate need to grant the permit, as the operators, McCosker's Freeway Properties Incorporated, does not contemplate quarrying until the Shepherd Canyon Freeway is completed.

Both also agreed with opponents of the operation that Pinehurst Road should not be used for quarry trucking.

BUT THE OTHER three supervisors, headed by Chairman H. L. Cummings, argued that McCosker could begin the operation immediately.

"From what Mr. McCosker said, it is his intention to start a stockpile so when the freeway comes through he will have rock," Cummings said.

But Frederickson persisted that "it is premature to have the quarry operation. When the freeway is open we might consider it."

Access from the quarry onto the freeway, recently the subject of strong opposition to the operation, was also a point of hot contention among the supervisors.

PREDICING THE debate and decision, a report by the Public Works Department on an alternate access road through Indian Valley was read.

The report stated that the road would be 3.2 miles long and 16 feet wide and would cost McCosker a minimum of $60,000.

The engineers reported the new road would have 5 and 10 per cent grades, would cross several slide areas, would require extensive grading and would require county condemnation of 7300 feet of its length that crosses lands owned by firms other than McCosker's.

The route would eliminate Pinehurst Road as a trucking road and would reduce by $21,000 the $60,000 to $85,000 worth of repairs the county foresees in rebuilding Pinehurst Road, the board heard.

CUMMINGS' COMMENT was, "Frankly, I think that is pretty severe on McCosker."

As the debate over the access road was launched, Buchanan urged that the permit be granted on conditions the operations begin when the freeway is built.

"Then a road would be available," he said. "It would save the county a lot of headaches."

BUT SUPERVISOR Ivan T. Goyak countered, "Then McCosker would have a quarry only when the freeway is finished. Whether it's that road (Pinehurst) or any other, I don't see how the county can deny use of the road. It is a restriction we may have jurisdiction over but no right to do."

Later in the discussion, Goyak said the county should keep the issue before it.

"When the freeway goes through," he said, "we should try to see that the (Mcosker) gains access and eliminate these roads."

Buchanan replied with the question, "Then why don't you go along with my suggestion to grant the permit on condition of freeway completion?"

AFTER THE BOARD granted the permit, it unanimously passed a resolution to assist McCosker to gain approval for a connection when the freeway is built.

Included in the permit are all restrictions submitted by county officials which were approved during lengthy negotiations between the county, McCosker and quarry site neighbors.

Restrictions include: LIMITATION of quarrying to successive 20-foot deep excavations from the top of a 1455-foot knoll. Excavating would be limited to the hours between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

Blasting would be limited to the hours between 7 a.m. and 1 p.m. the same days.

Other limitations would restrict the route of all trucks visiting the quarry and limit them to 25 m.p.h. Dust, spillage, water diversion and pollution controls are also required at the expense of the operator.

Orinda teenagers, having gained information about the Orinda Recreation Program, will join in the program as they meet next Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Pine Grove School to form their own recreation, social and service club.

Youths from Miramonte High School met with Recreation Program Director Frank Isola last week and learned what the program has to offer and how their own club could provide a wide variety of activities.

Isola stressed that the new club, which would consist of Miramonte students, would decide its own course of activities.

Along with a full slate of athletic and social events, including organized sports, games, dances, hayrides, barbecues and others, the club would also participate in community service and events, the director said.

Sponsored by the Orinda School District, the club would utilize Miramonte and Pine Grove School facilities.

Meanwhile, the community-wide recreation program is gaining impetus and expanding its range of activities, according to Isola.

Orinda men gathered at the Pine Grove School Monday night to engage in a fast game of volleyball.

As the program promises to offer "whatever activities locals show interest in," Isola reported that launching of a tennis program will be suggested at the second "Parents' night" next Thursday.

Both men and women will gather at the Pine Grove School at 7:30 that night to discuss the program and participate in a wide variety of activities.

Bitten by Dog

Danville Fireman Joe Moore was bitten on the foot, but not severely hurt recently, when answering a fire call at 231 Crest Avenue, Walnut Creek.

He opened the door of a burning house, and the dog trapped inside jumped through, fur aflame. The pain caused the dog to snap at Moore, he said.

Throat Hot, Raspy, Hurt? You've Got 'Hoarse Virus'

How's your throat feel? Raspy, tickle a little? ... Well don't feel too badly about it. ... You're not alone in your misery.

This past week numerous cases of a new virus infection were reported. This new virus seems to start out as a cold and within a few days the malady completely changes the sufferer's voice.

One moment he shouts, the next, his voice bursts forth in a whisper.

Dr. H. L. Blum of the county Health office reported that he had not received notice that the "Hoarse Virus" was anything to worry about.

A Lafayette doctor commented that the ailment was one of those upper respiratory infections common this time of the year. A Pleasant Hill doctor said that virus infections were common this time of year and this particular variety was not too serious.

Officials of the Mt. Diablo Unified School District and the Alameda County Board of Supervisors said there is a somewhat high rate of absenteeism, but this factor is not alarming due to the rapid change of temperature and weather conditions in the past week or 10 days.

Elementary schools in Lafayette and Orinda reported there were a good many children absent from school. The individual schools did not have a statistical breakdown of what sicknesses were keeping children home in bed.

Business houses in the Pleasant Hill area were aware of the "Hoarse Virus." One owner told The Sun: "My customers thought my voice was changing. ... I'd be shouting one minute and whispering the next. It was very funny to the customers, but not to me."

A Walnut Creek doctor said of the situation: "Well, let's face it. It's winter time and colds are here to stay. Better stock up on cough drops and nose drops and all the rest of those household items that make winter colds a little less miserable."

Johnson Denies Rumors on PIE, Rheem Center

Persistent rumors that Pacific Intermountain Express Company is planning to buy a 25-acre site in Rheem Center, across from Clark's Market, and that the huge trucking firm plans to sell its 10-acre Pine Grove site in Orinda were emphatically denied yesterday by C. E. Johnson, executive vice-president of PIE.

"There is absolutely no truth to such rumors," Johnson declared. "We own the Pine Grove parcel; we're in the courts now on that matter; and we have no intention of selling our Pine Grove land or purchasing other land — at Rheem Center or elsewhere — for our contemplated administrative office headquarters."

JOHNSON RECALLED that "some time ago" Utah Construction Company had asked him if PIE would be interested in buying some Utah Construction Company land, provided PIE disposed of its Pine Grove parcel, but that he "turned them down flat."

"Perhaps that's how this rumor got started," Johnson said. "You'll probably hear other rumors, too, to the effect that PIE is going to locate its office building at some other place or other, away from Pine Grove," he added. None of these rumors would be true.

LAST WEEK in Contra Costa County Superior Court in Martinez, Judge Allen G. Norris of Alameda County, who had been assigned to hear the case, took under submission the Orinda Association's request for a permanent injunction to block PIE construction of a $750,000 office building at the Pine Grove.

The judge indicated that he would probably not render a decision until January. The trial had progressed before him for two days earlier last week.

Taxpayers' Suit Looms to Fight Transit District

Possibility of a taxpayers' suit to attack the validity of the recently established Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District loomed closer this week as a "steering committee" met to discuss intricacies of the affair.

The county board of supervisors found itself in the strange position of advising taxpayers in methods of filing the suit while facing the likelihood of appearing as defendants in the same suit.

The board of supervisors started the ball rolling by inviting some 140 county, chamber of commerce, city government and civic leaders to meet Tuesday night to explore methods of combating the two-county district.

As a result of this meeting the steering committee was formed with Harry Morrison, secretary-manager of the Contra Costa Taxpayers Association as acting chairman.

PREVIOUSLY, DISTRICT Attorney Francis W. Collins had informed the board that Contra Costa's supervisors could not call an election, that a taxpayers' suit might force Alameda County authorities to schedule another election, and that the confusion over the absentee ballot count in the November election could not lead to another vote except through suit and court invalidation of the original balloting.

Assistant District Attorney Thomas McBride warned that his office would probably have to represent the defense in case of a taxpayers' suit.

However, he reviewed the enabling legislation under which the election was held, and discussed a number of possible attacks on the district's validity.

He explained that possible suits could be aimed either at getting the board to rule the election invalid in whole or in part, or possibly at some such maneuver as preventing the county tax collector from functioning in the district's behalf.

UNINCORPORATED AREAS can, he said, under the transit law, petition for exclusion, but this would probably not receive a sympathetic hearing from the transit directors, he concluded.

McBride also said he felt that no election could again be held in pivotal areas of Richmond and San Pablo where the absentee ballots were mixed until a court rules the November 6 transit vote invalid.

He added that any vote then could only be called by the Alameda County board of supervisors which has the controlling role throughout under the law.

Barely two dozen people appeared at the supervisors' hearing which caused Supervisors Ivan Goyak to comment that he had seen "larger turnouts for a hearing on a side-yard variance permit."

Schools to Devise Civil Defense Evacuation Plan

Orinda School District Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff will soon be conferring with school principals to devise a civil defense evacuation plan for each school.

Authorization for such plans came Monday night at a meeting of the board of trustees.

Under the general plan, when the order to evacuate comes through, each teacher will be responsible for getting a group of children home or to a designated spot in the children's neighborhood.

Sheaff and the school principals will designate area neighborhoods to which the children will be transported, and teachers responsible for the transfer.

Further plans in the evacuation program will be made next Wednesday night when the Mothers Club and other community representatives met with William W. Ward Jr., director of the Civil Defense and Disaster Council for Contra Costa, at 7:45 p.m. in the Orinda School.

In other business at Monday's meeting, the board passed a resolution which called for a thorough investigation and, if necessary, a drastic revision of the existing state textbook adoption and printing system.

The resolution also urged that school districts be allowed to adopt books freely under a state multiple choice system.

Republicans Back Doyle; Demos Bring Censure

Assemblyman Donald Doyle received a vote of confidence from the Contra Costa County Republican Central Committee this week, and through the efforts of State Senator George Miller a statement by the County Democratic Central Committee asking for Doyle's resignation was reduced to a resolution of censure only.

The Richmond Republican Women's Club also backed Doyle, stating that "his integrity is unquestionable," despite revelations that Thomas Mechling, advisor to Doyle's committee on textbooks, was also employed at $3000 a month by publishers opposed to the state system of publishing elementary texts.

THE REPUBLICAN Committee resolved that it had "full faith in the legislative qualifications and personal integrity" of the young assemblyman.

The original Democratic Committee statement called for Doyle's resignation, saying he "employed a lobbyist for textbook publishers. . . made conflicting statements concerning his acquaintance with textbook publishers. . . received almost $6000 from Governor Knights insurance pie, received $700 of Southern California oil money for his primary campaign and employed an ex-convict as his campaign manager."

COMMITTEE Russell Koch asked for clarification of some points. He said that employment of an ex-convict is not wrong, but only Doyle's failure to check the background of his campaign manager, Lester Butler.

Senator Miller agreed, and went on to say that the statement asking for Doyle's resignation smacked of "guilt by Association. . . of McCarthyism."

"I don't have any taste for this kind of thing from what I've heard of it. . . I feel that I have a grandstand seat at a lynching."

HE ADDED that this is the same sort of treatment that former Congressman Robert Condon, received two years ago.

He continued, "We decry guilt by association—McCarthyism—it seems to me that if we are sincere in our beliefs, now is the time we step back and see what is the real issue at hand."

The final resolution cited Doyle's "lack of sound judgement" and asked for further investigations to determine if there was "any conflict of interest or violation of law."

It concluded, "If such investigations substantiate any of these matters, then all appropriate steps should be taken for Doyle's removal from office."

School Leaders Will Continue Textbook Study

The California Association of School Administrators Wednesday voted 86-67 to review further a resolution supporting proposals to change the State system of buying textbooks.

Association president John C. Whinnery said that "The association board of governors will report as early as practical."

The move came after warnings by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Roy Simpson against taking any stand.

He told the association, "Any resolution might well be tabled until investigations are completed. . . You would be open to criticism no matter what direction you moved."

"Think well before you act," he said.

Autumn Weather Picture All Wet

The Orinda weather picture was a mingling of brisk autumn breezes and splashing of winter rain this week.

Clouds shrouded the local scene Tuesday and Wednesday, but as they cleared the sun shone brightly and the air was cool and fresh.

Those clouds, however, dropped .61 inches of moisture and had locals reaching for umbrellas and rushing for shelter.

Added to previous rainfalls, this precipitation brought the season's total to 4.90 inches.

Otherwise, the thermometer tells us, the days have been just what the fall menu called for. Here's what the weatherman reported:

Meet Tuesday to Renew Study of State System

Undaunted by the charges which have been flung against Assemblyman Donald Doyle's committee, residents of the county are organizing a Citizens Committee to study the system of state selection and printing of elementary textbooks.

Mrs. Hal Bates, a key member, said that a meeting will be held Tuesday evening at 8 in her home at 3280 Sweet Drive, Lafayette. All persons interested may call AT 4-4205.

Mrs. Bates said, "This committee is a result of public interest on the part of both parents and educators."

"IT WILL be non-political, and will also urge the continued investigation of this vital problem on a state level."

"It has been impossible to contact all the people we know are vitally interested in this project in such a short time. However, we wish to extend an invitation to all citizens to let us know of their interest by phoning AT 4-4205," she said.

Many of the men and women already signed up for the meeting have been associated with past efforts to bring about widespread discussions of the state method of choosing basic elementary texts.

MANY OF them have vigorously opposed the present method. Some were members of the Walnut Heights Parent Teachers Association which five years ago brought the textbook problem to statewide prominence.

At the meeting, members hope to pick a permanent chairman, and set up "definite goals."

The method of collecting materials and their use in preparing an impartial evaluation for submission to the State Legislature and Governor Goodwin Knight will be decided.

Mrs. Bates said, "We are not out for partisan politics or to assist any particular school group—we are just a citizens organization trying to get more facts."

AMONG THE EARLY signers for participation in the meeting are Joseph Sheaff, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bentley and Mesdames H. D. DuBois, Donald Krotz, Ogden Kiesel, Catherine McGuire and James Irwin of Orinda; W. B. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Field, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bates, Mrs. Robert Adams and Mrs. Kenneth Swift of Lafayette.

Floyd Buchanan, Laurence Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hazlett, and Mesdames T. W. Marston, Elliot Mauzy and Allan Fuller of Walnut Creek.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Major Gordon West of Pleasant Hill; Mrs. Steven Balog, Mrs. Gordon Hommer and Dr. Robert Graham of Concord; Mrs. Stanley Friden and Mrs. Mac Osborn of Danville and residents of Martinez, Pittsburg, Crockett, Kensington and Richmond.

Rotary to Host Orinda Kids At Yule Party

Santa Claus (in person), gifts, movie, cartoons and a special feature will all be highlights of the Orinda Rotary Club's annual Christmas party for the local "small fry" at the Orinda Theater on Saturday, December 15, starting at 9 a.m.

This was announced this week by Robert Thaman and Joseph Dame, co-chairmen of the event. They said the party will be for youngsters from third grade down through pre-schoolers.

Orinda Rotary President Ramsay Underwood pointed out that adults from the Rotary Club and teenagers from the Wheel Club will be present to provide supervision. He added that the affair is being publicized through the grammar school system here.

Orinda 'Man of the Year' Committee Starts Work

Who will receive the title of Orinda's Man — or Woman — of the Year?

The local person deemed to have contributed most during 1956 toward betterment of Orinda will be announced in The Orinda Sun December 28 by a committee of three local citizens.

This committee, whose decision will be final in the Sun-sponsored annual contest, started deliberations this week.

YOUR SUGGESTIONS are desired by the committee. Jot them down, stating your reasons, and send them to The Orinda Sun, P.O. Box 147, Orinda, or to the chairman of the Man of the Year Committee — Mrs. Charles Erickson, 31 Donna Maria Way, Orinda.

Mrs. Erickson is president of the Orinda Mothers Club. Serving with her are Merle Brown, president of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, and William Thurston, chairman of the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association.

Although The Sun sponsors the contest, the choice of the Man of the Year is entirely up to the committee, which will study all suggestions carefully but which is free to consider any local person, whether or not suggested by the public.

IN ADDITION to announcement of the committee's choice, a special article about the honored person will be in the December 28 Orinda Sun.

Before becoming Orinda Mothers Club president, Mrs. Erickson held various offices in the Mothers Club, including the vice-presidency last year. She is a member of the Miramonte Parents Club and the Orinda High School Mother Club. She has been a Girl Scout leader in Orinda and, before moving here several years ago, in Oakland.

Brown, manager of the Orinda branch of the American Trust Company, is a director of the Orinda Rotary Club, of which he was charter president.

Thurston was president last year of the Hacienda Improvement Association and is that organization's delegate to the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee. Last week he was elected president of Hacienda Homes, Inc. He is a physicist with Shell Development Company at Emeryville.

Brown Asks Court Settlement of 'Radio' Dispute

Superior Court has ordered the County Board of Supervisors to rescind a resolution passed Tuesday taking the County Communications Department out of the control of Sheriff Harry A. Brown, or show cause in a hearing December 17 at 10 a.m., in the Hall of Records.

The court action is in reply to a petition for a writ of mandamus and an alternate writ filed by Brown, Wednesday.

Brown termed the Supervisors action, taken in the final minutes of the Tuesday session, a "reprehensible action" after his efforts to crackdown on pinball and card game operations.

THE MOTION was by Supervisor Ray Taylor, First Taylor moved that the Communications Department be taken from Brown, and be made autonomous.

But when County Administrators Desmond Teeter reminded him that it would be useless without people to staff the new department, Taylor amended the resolution to direct that Teeter and Brown confer on dividing the present supply of technicians between the sheriff and the county.

Brown told the Sun today that he plans to keep all his men as long as possible.

"THE BOARD of supervisors has no control over the sheriff," Brown stated.

"I am an elected official responsible to the people only. This action by the board is illegal."

"Communications Department is a branch of the Sheriff's office. Some of the other county offices have been getting a free ride for years."

"The fire departments and fire districts have their own radio equipment and systems. We have been letting our technicians do repair work for them, but it's been a free ride for them."

W.W. Wilson Taken by Death

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. today from the Mausoleum Chapel in Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland, for William Wesley Wilson of 38 Mira Loma, Orinda, who died Wednesday at a San Francisco hospital.

A resident of the Orinda-Lafayette area since 1932, Mr. Wilson was supervising purchasing agent at the California Spray Chemical Company of Richmond. He was an Army Air Corps veteran of World War I and a member of the Theta Chi Fraternity at the University of California.

Survivors include his wife, Elene Taylor Wilson, and two sisters, Helen W. Wilson and Mrs. Mary Louise Gildersleeve, both of Berkeley.

The family asks friends who wish to do so to send memorials to the American Cancer Society or to their favorite charity.

Absentee Ballots Favor Wallace, But Nielsen's In

Absentee ballot votes for Supervisor-elect Nielsen, for the 2nd District haven't altered the results of the November 6 election which found Mel Nielsen nosing out Clarence R. Wallace for the seat.

Contrary to the trend at the polls, Wallace was the favorite among the absent voters. Of the 750 votes mailed in, the County Clerk's Office reports that Wallace tallied 385 to 465 in favor of Supervisor-elect Nielsen.

Adding these votes to the November 6 totals, Nielsen is still out in front, 9932 to 9286.

With 836 absentee ballot due after the general election, Wallace would have had to compile a vast majority to top the election. He trailing by 666 votes before the absentee votes were counted.

Campaign Figure Implicated in 'Veterans' Fraud

Lester Butler, who managed Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle's campaign for election in 1952, who assisted with one of Congressman John Baldwin's campaigns, and who managed the 1953 area March of Dimes drive, has been implicated in an alleged fraud.

The gimmick, according to Vernon Libby, general manager of the San Francisco Better Business Bureau, is an advertisement for a non-existent "Veterans Review" yearbook, submitted in the form of a bill.

AN UNSUSPECTING recipient might pay the "bill" without reading the sentence, "This is a solicitation, not a bill," printed in very small type at the bottom of the sheet, he said.

Several of these forms, "Dedicated to Veterans of All Our Wars," have been received in the central county area, and Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce Secretary-Manager Larry Pinard this week sent an inquiry to San Francisco.

In each case, the merchant was surprised to find a sum of several dollars written in a column labeled "balance."

REPORTEDLY, Butler has been linked to the "bills" by a San Francisco printer who said he made them up at Butler's request. Butler also allegedly had been using a small office in San Francisco while pursuing "psychiatric" or "medical" activities.

Butler has served time in the Fresno County jail in 1928, and was paroled from San Quentin in 1935, after conviction for holding up a store.

More recently, he said he was associated with the Commonwealth University, no longer in existence.

State Begins Improvement Work on Tunnel Lighting

The State Division of Highways has told the Orinda Chamber of Commerce that it is "working to solve the practical aspects of the problems involved in providing satisfactory visibility" in the Broadway Tunnel, the latter continued.

"After the tests are completed the tunnel interior will be painted and washed periodically in order to maintain good wall and ceiling brightness."

Sinclair added that the division has found that the best method to delineate the edge of pavement and face of curb is to paint double stripes on the pavement adjacent to the curb.

The letter continues that "The installation of modern lighting and tiling the walls and ceiling at the portals of the tunnel will be proposed in conjunction with the work on the freeway project now being planned between 17th Street and the east portal of the tunnel."

"This project will include the construction of a parallel tunnel."

Polio Hits 10 Youths; Shot Available

"Ten county teenagers have been the victims of paralytic polio so far this year," according to Don Blackwood, chairman of the Contra Costa County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

He went on to say that the majority of our high school students face the 1957 polio season unprotected against the disease, despite the fact that nationwide, one out of every seven cases of polio occurs among teenagers.

In an urgent appeal for vaccination of teenagers, Blackwood pointed out that for the first time in history, we have a weapon to combat polio. Salk vaccine is in plentiful supply.

With widespread use, we can virtually eliminate paralytic polio. It would be a tragic waste if through carelessness, neglect or apathy, thousands of youngsters were condemned to face this terrible disease," he said.

Between now and next spring everyone of high school age should receive two shots of Salk vaccine. Full protection requires a third shot seven or more months after the first two. Now is the time to start the three-shot course for full protection during next summer's polio season, he added.

Polio vaccine is available to everyone through private physicians. It is also available to children through 19 years of age and to pregnant women at Health Department clinics located throughout the county.

Known for his regal performance as the Tsar in "Noris Godunoff," Mr. Palangi has proven equally successful as actor and singer in such strongly contrasting roles as Don Giovanni, Mephistopheles, and Jabez Stone in "The Devil and Daniel Webster."

Winner of the San Francisco Music Critics' award, Mr. Palangi has been a featured soloist with the San Francisco Symphony under Pierre Monteux and Arthur Fiedler, with the San Diego Philharmonic and other West Coast orchestras where he received enthusiastic notices.

His present booming career is a far cry from the days when the young star drove a beer truck and prepared for a boxing career. Not until his rich bass voice was discovered during his service in the Navy did Mr. Palangi give serious thought to studying voice.

Encouraged by musical experts, he began intensive studies in voice, languages, acting and repertoire. Those who know him best attribute his phenomenal success to a rare combination of dramatic and musical talent, a magnificent voice and physique and an engaging personality.

As a champion boxer, he learned the value of intensive training and still lives a Spartan life: up at six, gymnasium two hours, vocalization two hours, studies, builds repertoire, and to bed at nine when not in concert. Palangi believes a robust voice with beautiful tone comes from a sound body.

PH Man Claims Gas War Losses; Brings $5000 Suit

Ronald Kaehler, a Pleasant Hill resident and operator of a gasoline service station in Martinez, has brought a $5000 law suit against the Texas Company, alleging breach of contract and violation of the Unfair Practices Act.

His attorney, John Ford of Walnut Creek, said that when the matter came up in Superior Court he will show that Kaehler, a Texas Company dealer, was a victim of price discrimination during the East Bay "gas war."

He explained that Texas Company dealers in Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda and Pleasant Hill during the gas war received rebates, or cash sums from the company, which enabled them to lower their prices sharply without suffering bankruptcy.

Kaehler, a dealer on Alhambra Street in west Martinez, received no such rebate, and was forced to keep his prices at the usual level. As a result, he lost trade to the areas where the prices were down, Ford indicated.

During the price war, the Texas Company, and presumably other companies, charged dealers the usual price for quantity gasoline, but provided the rebates, making the lower prices possible.

Why Kaehler was discriminated against will be brought out in later legal action, Ford said.

Texas Company representatives in Los Angeles have been served with a summons complaint, and may choose to file their own motions in court in the near future.

The gas war continued in the central county for several weeks, and prices fell to 23.9 cents and lower for a gallon of regular gasoline.

DWIGHT E. SEATON of 48 Lost Valley Drive, Orinda, was the recipient last weekend of a certificate of appreciation from the United States Post Office Department for his many years of postal service. He is shown at the Orinda Post Office with Postmaster Laura Mallory as she presented him the certificate. He retired from the work in October, after nearly 30 years' service, the last five years of which were at the Orinda Post Office. On the wall is a picture of another Dwight—President Dwight Eisenhower.—Sun photo by Mattson.

Student Finds Out About Becoming IBM President

When members of the 8th grade class at the Pine Grove School recently undertook the project of gaining information about their prospective careers, most showed interest in such occupations as engineers, teachers, and other fields well within reach. Not so with Lawrence Burde. His sights were set higher. He wanted to become president of the giant International Business Machines Corporation. And when, as part of the project, Lawrence inquired into his chances of attaining his goal, the present president of the company, T. J. Watson Jr., the man he hopes to replace, told him his chances were good. EIGHTH GRADE teacher William Klein advised his pupils to contact people within their desired professions to get information. Lawrence, following the advice, wrote to R. L. Koche, IBM San Francisco branch manager, telling him of his ambitions. Koche answered the letter, saying that "seldom do young men of your age look as far ahead as you have, and you are to be commended." The branch manager also forwarded the letter to Watson's New York office. THE PRESIDENT, replying as "the fellow who is going to keep your chair warm here," told Lawrence "how delighted I am that you are aiming at our company."

The student followed up his letter to Koche with a phone call, and was advised on the best ways of getting a start with the company he some day hopes to head. Meanwhile, the other students in the class were also contacting people in their prospective careers to learn what the professions entail.

According to Klein, teaching seemed the most attractive profession, interesting 11 pupils. Engineering was the next in popularity, drawing 10 pupils. Others in the class were interested in such diversified fields as sales, dentistry, airline stewardesses and science.

One girl, he said, wanted to be a farmer. Another was interested in training Arabian horses. KLEIN SAID he realized that many of the students would change their minds about their ambitions, but felt the main object of the project was "to show the youngsters how to get information about their fields."

This work, he added, also "helps them to prepare for their future studies, as they can find out whether they're suited for the demands of their chosen professions."

Diamond K Grid Contest Ends; Again--No Wins

The curtain went down last weekend on the 1956 Diamond K Supply Football Contest—and the final weekend, like the preceding one, resulted in nary a winner. Of the 24 entries received in time for consideration, none guessed the required 18 correct win-or-lose results for a $5 merchandise order from Diamond K Supply, 3671 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

A GUESS of 19 correct picks would have meant a $15 merchandise order, while a guess of 20 correct picks (the whole shebang) would have meant a $25 merchandise order. If more than one person had scored the same winning proportions, the merchandise order would have been equally divided.

HOWEVER, the popularity of the contest (as on a number of prior weekends) meant effort and fun—without success.

In addition to the 24 entries which were studied, two entries were received too late for consideration. And so Diamond K Supply writes "finis" to another exciting season of armchair quarterbacking.

Lafayette Artists Display Works

Mona Beaumont and Karl Kaster of Lafayette are among the artists exhibiting in the currently on display San Francisco Art Association open exhibition for its artist members at the M. H. de Young Memorial Museum.

Mona Beaumont is represented by "Woman," a tempera painting, and Karl Kaster, by "Still Life with Blue," an oil painting. The exhibition of paintings, sculpture and graphics were submitted by 140 members, each member being allowed to submit one work completed within the past two years to represent a cross-section of the best in Pacific Coast art.

Toop 210

An open meeting of Lafayette Boy Scout Troop 210 will be held next Monday evening at the Scout Hut on Carol Lane. Troop 210 has invited members of Lafayette Boy Scout Troop 224 to visit their meeting and present the 45 minute colored motion picture story of Troop 224 and their summer trek into the High Sierra this past summer. Troop 210 is planning a similar hike for the coming vacation period. Several guests have been invited to join the local troops in their evening get-together. The guest list will include several Webelos dens from the area, committeemen of Troop 210, and members of the scouts' families. The movies were taken by members of Troop 224 during their 14-days of camping and hiking in the wilderness area of the Monor Recesses east of Fresno. Refreshments will be served at the close of the evening by the members of the Mothers Club of Troop 210. Friends of the troop are urged to attend this meeting, according to Ralph Minor, committee chairman.

P.O. Honors Seaton for Long Service

A Certificate of Merit for nearly 30 years of "faithful service," and luggage to aid his travels were presented last Friday to Dwight E. Seaton, recently retired carrier at the Orinda Post Office.

The certificate, presented by Mrs. Laura Mallory, Orinda Postmaster, praised Seaton for his many years of service. It was signed by Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield.

Fellow employees at the local Post Office, where Seaton has been employed since 1951, then presented the retired carrier with a set of luggage, which he will use soon on a trip to Mexico.

Seaton, who is also a veteran of two world wars, retired on October 31 from the postal service.

His long career started, after a hitch in the armed forces, in the Portland, Ore., Post Office in 1929.

In 1943 Seaton left the Portland Post Office to accept a position with the War Shipping Administration. Three years later he transferred to the U.S. Maritime Commission at Martinez.

He served in the Federal Agency until 1949, at which time he reentered the postal service as a clerk at the Berkeley Post Office.

Seaton and his wife soon after purchased a home at 48 Lost Valley Drive, and when the opportunity arose on September 16, 1951, he transferred to the Orinda Post Office.

Following his retirement, Seaton began making preparations to leave his home and take his long-awaited vacation trip. An extended stay in Santa Barbara is also included in the Seaton's plans for the next year or so.

The Nobel prize winner, a former member of the General Advisory Board of the Atomic Energy Commission, will appear early next year in a TV film on science over station KQED, which will present 10 half-hour educational programs filmed at their studios.

35 Dolls Need Volunteer Care

About 35 dolls, ranging in height from 2 inches to 4½ feet, were deposited at the home of Mrs. Mae Watkins, 1107 Orchard Road, Lafayette, yesterday morning by the Lafayette Fire Department.

"They must be washed, combed and, in many cases, provided with new garments," Mrs. Watkins said later. She explained that they will be added to the approximately 15 she has already rejuvenated this yuletide season and turned over to the Volunteer Bureau in Walnut Creek, for distribution to needy children as Christmas gifts.

"I need volunteers to help me," Mrs. Watkins said. "I urge any women who can do so to get in touch with me. I'll furnish the materials, and the women can take the dolls home, to work on."

The dolls are among the many toys which local youngsters have been bringing to the Lafayette Fire Department for Christmas cheer repair. Mrs. Watkins performed this same service last year, and is regarded by the fire-fighters as the head of "Dollies, Inc."

Freezing weather can damage an automobile battery. A fully charged battery will withstand temperatures as low as 80 degrees below zero, but a weak or nearly discharged battery may freeze and burst when subjected to freezing temperatures.

Don Pageant Will Tell Of 'Christmas Flower'

Acalanes High School students, 230 strong, will present a gala Christmas pageant, their holiday gift to the community, at 8 p.m. December 17 in the Don gym.

Girls in the Acalanes modern dance group will portray the story of "The Christmas Flower," adapted from a book by Joseph Henry Jackson.

"The Christmas Flower" is a story of a young Aztec named Pablo whose defiance of pagan gods and customs enrages the villagers against him until a miracle occurs in the church during the telling of the story of Jesus. Weeds which Pablo had brought to adorn the altar turn into scarlet flowers.

The Acalanes band, A Cappella and Girls' Chorus will render traditional Christmas music including "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer," "Frosty the Snowman" and "Winter Wonderland."

The modern dance group is directed by Miss Millicent Ham-burger; the band and singers by Richard Hansen, music instructor.

Cummings Gets Board's Praise

"Its appreciation and its best wishes for the future" have been expressed to Supervisor H. L. Cummings by the Lafayette Improvement Association board.

In a resolution adopted November 28 at their meeting at Lafayette Town Hall the directors pointed out that Cummings, supervisor from the Second District and chairman of the Board of Supervisors, will retire at the close of his term the end of this month, after having served as supervisor for 24 years.

"Throughout these many years," the resolution stated, "he has shown his interest in the affairs of the people of Lafayette, being ready at all times to consult with them and help them work out satisfactory solutions to their problems."

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Feeling fit to be Yule-tied!

THIS WAS THE WEEK when the Lady of the House settled down with her demi-tasse to pour over the slew of slick magazines acquired on her daily journeys to the store. (Those Christmas "Come-on" covers ARE irresistible!)

She fairly DROOLED over dramatic decor she'll NEVER get around to creating . . . clipped recipes for holiday fare she'll cubby-hole last minute in lieu of her tried and true ones . . . mulled over mail order presents for hours that she'll forget to send FOR!

She scribbled lengthy gift lists she'll manage to lose along the line of store counters someplace . . . planned a Xmas budget she'll toss over her shoulder the minute she's out alone w/her charge accounts . . . cleaned out her desk drawers . . . (Where IS that card list so carefully kept for years?!) and in rearranging the furniture to make room for the TREE, she relegated Father's favorite chair to the children's room. So it goes, we're all in the same holiday throes!

GETTING A HEAD START on the festivities, the Ernest Chiltons will entertain tomorrow evening w/a late supper and dance at their home on Haciendas Road . . . Among the localities joining out-of-town guests to christen the mistletoe season are the Andrew Hartanovs, Andre Roegiers, Lee Switzer, Karl and Margorie Sax, Fred and Estelle Johnson, the Bruce Andersons, John and Margaret Gompertz.

Tonight the Bill Fleagers will host a party at their home on El Suena for the George Hauerkens and Sunday, the Starr Simonsons will dispense early CHEER at their Glorietta Ct. residence w/an afternoon cocktail conclave.

Two moves — one just next door

Friends and neighbors of the Horton Hills are circling Dec. 11 for a SMORGASBORD Yule supper party to be given in the couple's honor by Frederick and Pauline Thrane at their Broadview Terrace abode.

With the Hills transferring to Eureka on Dec. 15th, they'll hand over their housekeys to the Don Minklers, who will merely move NEXT DOOR from where they are now on Overhill Rd.

OVER DINNER AT THE ORINDA Country Club Sunday night, plans were formulated to light up the eyes of the young fry at the annual Christmas Party set for Saturday afternoon, Dec. 15th . . . Caroline Read and Fran Connolly to co-chairmen w/some of Santa's helpers being John and Kitty Gillivan, Ron and Sally Kersh, Bill and Dana Cook, the Alex Conkins, the Bob Cases.

The Rotarians have calendared Sunday eve, Dec. 16 for their annual wassailing which will be held, ladies included, at the Orchard Nursery in Lafayette.

The William Scatenas have issued invitations to a repeat of their last year's holiday gathering, a Christmas Dance to the music of a combo, at their home on Tarry Lane, Dec. 15th.

George and June Merriam will celebrate a first holiday season in their NEW Henry Hill-designed home on Van Tassel Lane w/an OPEN HOUSE beckoning callers on Dec. 22nd, and Gladys Hamberg will deck the hall of her Katrina Ct. home to welcome women friends for an afternoon get-together on Dec. 21st.

A tree in every room already!

A freezer full of pheasant will come in handy for the Ernest Fernstons' large family dinner party to follow their traditional Egg Nog party on the afternoon of Xmas Eve. . . Here a happy crowd for Christmas caroling accompanied by Susie at the piano, Karen on the accordion, and Doris Fernsten, well-organized mother of four, ALREADY has cards written, packages wrapped and a tree UP in every room of the house! Decorated, too!

IT WILL BE A FIRST YULETIDE in Orinda for Virginia and Roland Forester, newly-arrived from Oakland, the fun of decorating their new doorway on Charles Hill Circle . . . Santa has a new address this year, too, for Jean and Tony Von Eggert and their nine-yr. old dgtr. Tona who have moved from the foggy side of the tunnel to a new home on Ichabod Lane in Sleepy Hollow. Christmas week, the Von Eggerts have invited the Richard Hanlins and their son Dick to be their houseguests at their Pinecrest place.

Also planning a Pinecrest-stay in the snow over New Year's are the Bill Gilmores and their children, who will have as their houseguests the families of Bill Lee and Leonard Odenthal.

A COMPLIMENT to ORINDA when people who have had a Paris address for the past ten years, have toured the continent and lived in some of the world's most glamorous places, pick this particular spot of suburbia in which to "settle down." . . . Such cosmopolitan converts are Jack and Isabel Slaughter, since mid-October, very happy in their new home on Camino Sobrante. . . After the new year, they'll be joined by their daughter Tony, who is currently deep in studies at the Univ. of Texas.

Many local mother and daughter duos planning to attend the traditional "Nutcracker Suite" to be given in Berkeley, Dec. 15th, in SF, Dec. 21, 22 . . . One of the YOUNGEST members of the SF Ballet who will dance in the Tschakovsky classic is Diana Lee Nielsen, daughter of the Clint Nielsens of Lafayette and younger sister of Nancy Keeney of Buckeye Ranch. Diana is a junior at Acalanes and you'll remember her as the young daughter in the Dramateurs' presentation of "The Women."

Home for the holidays are the Charles Malones, long-time Orindans, back to their hearthside on Loma Vista Dr. after a two-month motoring trip to Canada, the Eastern Seaboard and Cuba.

Its a good racquet!

ANYONE FOR TENNIS? Members of the recently-organized Women's Tennis Association RALLIED over lunch at the Country Club Nov. 28 w/the new club tennis pro, Wilmer Hines, who is all SET to make champs out of every one of them . . . HIS background

MAKING SPECULATIONS as to what Heaven will be like for the Junior Prom are left to right Ann Munroe, Diane McKenzie, Karen Jeffries, Judy Henderson, Arne Groenings, Kelo Ann Thrall, Judy Colvin and Donna Stegman. These Acalanes High School students are looking forward to the Junior Prom, which will be held from 8:30 to 11:30 tonight at the Acalanes gym. The affair is being called "A Little Bit of Heaven."

Merits of Two Teaching System To be Discussed

What do parents think of specialized vs. general teaching for 7th and 8th graders? This question will be explored next Tuesday night at Orinda's Pine Grove School.

The discussion, set for 8 p.m. in the Pine Grove Library, has been planned by the Orinda Parent Curriculum Committee as a part of their study of the local curriculum.

At several previous meetings the group has been studying the subject of specialized teaching, according to Mrs. Frank Newman, committee chairman.

"We have met with a good many teachers and school administrators from Orinda and from other school districts, too," she said. "Now we would like very much to hear from other Orinda parents."

hard to MATCH for court accomplishments. A former member of the US Davis Cup Team, Mr. Hines also ranked among the top ten nationally as Jr. Single and Doubles Champion, copping the Seabright and Longwood tournaments, and comes to Orinda via Arizona, Lake Arrowhead, the Pensacola Country Club.

Attending tennis enthusiasts were Rose Howard, Carol Anderson (who emerged as Women's Singles Champ in the recent Round Robin tourney), Winnie Gilmore, Nancy Miller, Gail De Witt . . . Among others there were Betty Slattery, Doris Moylan, Irene Hinds and Kathleen McFarland, as well as Margaret Gompertz, who daughter Peggy, by the way, walked off the courts victoriously w/the Robert Hamptons' son Bob in the Under-21 Doubles . . . To add two more tennis devotees, Ann Roe and Frank Norman, who were the Champs in the Over-21 Doubles.

BACK TO HIS OLD MUSICAL STAND, Bill Tarbia, string instrumentalist at Campana Music Shop, after a summer sojourn in the southland where he played w/Charlie Barnett's band, followed this w/a fall engagement at "Leroys" and "Don's Beachcomber" in the Islands . . . The Tapias currently househunting here w/their daughter Cleo who danced the Ancient Hula at the Halekulani Hotel in Honolulu during the family's stay and hopes to teach the same in a studio here in their new home.

The Ancient Hula, if you're curious, is danced to the rhythmic beat of a CALABASH, a hollowed-out vegetable gourd, and now you know, or maybe you did already!

GOOD SCOUTS! Boys of Den 2, aPek 207, Orinda, are ambitiously planning a potluck dinner for their parents for Sunday, Dec. 23 at the Oak Springs Clubhouse . . . fellas are making gifts, crafting candle centerpieces and napkins for their individual tables and issuing hand-drawn invitations this week. (WHO is the Den Mother?) . . . As if this isn't enough, they'll help to cook the dinner, set up the tables, serve coffee and dessert and clean-up afterwards! Well on their way after this toward their BEAR badge are Jim Denning, Andy Hall, Bill Plumb and Tommy Bill . . . Also Scott Adie, Barry Daupinee, Tommy Hesse and George Gray.

Their Den Mother deserves a badge, too!

Local Infantry Officer Gets Commendation

Captain Bruce T. Coggins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Coggins of 19 Los Dedos, Orinda, has received a commendation ribbon in Hawaii from Colonel Barney D. White, chief of staff of the 25th Infantry Division.

Coggins, assistant staff judge advocate in the division's headquarters, was commended for outstanding service as judge advocate of the Military Affairs Division in Washington, D. C., from September, 1952, to last March.

To next Tuesday's meeting the committee has also invited several parents from the Mt. Diablo School District, where each 7th and 8th grader has two teachers for his academic work instead of one as in Orinda.

All Orinda parents are welcome, according to Mrs. Newman.

Miramonte Student Music Will Entertain Parents

Christmas music by the student band and mixed chorus will provide the entertainment following a potluck supper to be held by the Miramonte Parents Club at 6:45 p.m. Monday in the gymnasium at Miramonte High School.

An evening of good food and fun instead of the usual business meeting is on the program, according to Mrs. Jack Walling, president of the Parents Club.

The hospitality committee, under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Glass, will provide a Christmas dinner and coffee.

PARENTS ARE being asked to bring either a meat casserole, salad or rolls. Every person will supply his own table service of plate, cup and silver.

Mrs. W. H. Foster, chairman of the evening, announces that there will be community singing during the dinner, led by Robert Brown.

The newly formed band, performing for the first time for the parents, will present numbers from a "Christmas Suite" and Roy Anderson's "Sleigh Ride," under the direction of Calvin Crabill.

"Asking an outsider to eat with the family is a far greater mark of acceptance and approval than merely asking him into one's house. Similar value attaches to the giving and receiving of food as a present."

Final Details Being Placed At Interchange

Placing of right-of-way fences, guardrails, right-of-way markers and guideposts at the completed freeway lanes of the Pleasant Hill Road Interchange will take "probably the next two weeks," the office of S. F. Lucchese, State Division of Highways resident engineer, said yesterday.

"The right-of-way fencing will probably take the greatest time among these final details," an aide at Lucchese's office, in the former Rick's Drive-in, observed. Windup of these details and various cleanup operations will depend upon the weather, it was pointed out.

All major items of work on the $1,301,378 project have been completed, it was stressed. Both eastbound and westbound traffic was rerouted to the final traffic pattern at the Interchange last Friday.

Work on the Pleasant Hill Interchange project was begun in April, 1955. Joint general contractors have been Stolte, Inc., and Gallagher and Burk. Final "windup" details are being performed by subcontractors.

the home of Mrs. John Bohn of Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Orinda, at 9:30 a.m.

Guest speaker for the morning will be Mrs. Florence Antablin, who has recently returned to this country from Beirut, Lebanon.

Sunday School classes and Bible Discussion groups will be held as usual.

Jaycees Search For Outstanding Local Young Man

Public recognition for a job well done is in order for Lafayette's outstanding young man of the year.

He will be presented with the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce Distinguished Service Award at Pioneer Village.

Any young man, 21 through 35 years of age, is eligible for nomination. He will be judged on basis of (1) contribution to community welfare during 1956; (2) evidence of leadership ability; and (3) evidence of personal or business growth.

The nominee need not be a member of Jaycees.

All local organizations are invited to submit nominees. Nominating forms have already been distributed to most groups, but additional forms may be obtained by phoning Sid Harris, chairman for the event, at AT 3-3613.

Nominations close midnight next Tuesday. Entries should be addressed to P. C. Wharf, 3212 Los Palos Circle, Lafayette.

The judging committee will be composed of five citizens of the community. They are Carl Thomas, pastor; Herman Silverman, publisher; Mel Nielsen, local supervisor-elect; Stanley Walgren, school principal; and Don Gibson, businessman. Al Cary, local merchant, will serve as alternate.

Judges will individually review qualifications of all nominees from the completed nominating forms and cast secret ballots. No debating will be permitted. The name of the young man to be honored will not be divulged until the banquet.

Masonic Lodge Master Will Be Thomas Pauli

Acalanes Lodge 723, F. & A. M., Lafayette, will install Thomas C. Pauli as worshipful master Tuesday evening. The 8 o'clock ceremonies will be held at the Veterans Memorial Building on Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Also to be installed are William M. Glogovac, senior warden; Donald B. Strain, junior warden; Robert A. Nemes, treasurer; Harding T. Crandell, secretary; John F. Doane, chaplain; Robert M. Seay, senior deacon; John E. Kennett, junior deacon; Melvin B. Sundstrom, marshal; Robert W. Keller, senior steward; Henry W. Scheuer, junior steward; Marcus M. Matlock, tiler.

Host for the evening will be the retiring master Donald H. Fibush. Installing officer will be Harold E. Pauli, P.M., with J. Harold McCrum, P.M., as master of ceremonies.

All Master Masons are invited to attend the closed ceremonies.

Magazine is promised for the yule season. And of course the yearbook staff is still working hard to be sure to have the Aklan ready on time.

Hard-working seniors had a Christmas cake sale last Wednesday. It was supported greatly by the class. This is only natural, as the affair was in order to raise money for the coming Senior All-Night in June.

Planners Hear Rezoning Request

The request of W. F. Bishop to rezone his 3/4 acre property in the Acalanes Junction to allow for duplex housing was taken under advisement Tuesday by the Planning Commission.

Bishop, whose application to rezone has been protested by area residents, has asked to have the parcel changed from the existing Transition Residential Agricultural District (R-A) to a Multiple Family Residential District (M-R).

The parcel is located north of the State Highway on the south side of Grant Lane.

Voicing his objection to the rezoning proposal at the planners' meeting Tuesday was William Grant, whose home lies adjacent to the Bishop property.

State Files Suit

The State of California filed suit in Martinez Tuesday to condemn two pieces of property totaling .953 acre in western Lafayette, needed for construction of the Lafayette By-Pass.

The suit named the North American Title Guaranty Corporation as owner of one parcel, and Mrs. Juanita Waite Howard of Lafayette as owner of the other.

The .521 of an acre and .432 of an acre parcels are adjoining triangles approximately 1500 feet east of Pine Lane and approximately 950 feet northwest of the end of Burton Road.

Over the Fence — Boy, 2, Gets Lost

By PERSIS K. REED

Anne and Bud Marty of Anita Court, Lafayette, feel pretty lucky this week, considering what might have been.

Bobbie, their youngest, is 2, and last Friday at 9:50 he was playing in his back yard, and at 10 he had climbed over the back fence and away.

Anne thought he was across the street at Mikie McCluskey's, but he wasn't — then he must have gone over to see Lee Golding, but he didn't — maybe little Martha Corkadel — uh-uh.

ANNE STARTED then, looking in back of the house on the hill but no sign of him, and then a fast check on the neighbors. Joan Corkadel got on the phone and called everyone she knew on Carol Lane, and Skip Peters started looking up on Janet, but no Bobbie.

Then word came back from the searching volunteers that someone had seen a little boy who said his name was Bobbie standing near some high water.

With the creek the threat to little tykes that it is, Anne decided that she needed the sheriff's office and they sent four men.

MEANWHILE, the people who know the area best were searching everywhere, and Eunice Mig-nola and Lucille Lapsley had a hunch about the area around Kie-mys Woods and Stellars, since there is some attractive play equipment that might catch a little guy's eye, and there wasn't anyone home there.

So they went back, and there in the deep weeds, whimpering and more than half asleep, he was. He was soaking wet, cold and blue, and tired and unhappy, and he wanted his mommy and daddy, so at about 3 o'clock, he was home again, and it was a most terrifying experience.

Later, he said he had gone by flowers, and that a dog had been in the water with him, not his dog, but another, so Anne thinks he went through somebody's yard, wandered down into the creek but the water was so cold that he tried to come back, but it was too far, he was too tired, and he was lost.

Soroptimists' Agenda Lists AFS, Carols

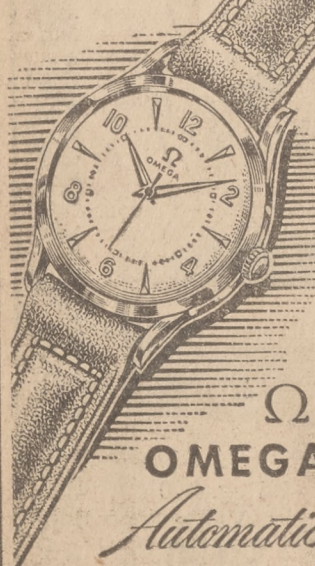

Plans for student-exchange and Christmas carol programs were discussed at the Tuesday luncheon business meeting of the Soroptimist International of Lafayette-Orinda at El Nido.

With President Esther Marchant conducting the session, it was announced that these programs will feature the next two luncheon meetings of the organization, next Tuesday and December 18, at 12:15 p.m. each day at El Nido.

Next Tuesday Mrs. T. D. Sanford of Orinda will tell about the American Field Service project of exchange of high school students. She will have with her three European students now living and studying here, and two local-area teenagers who have been to Europe as participants in the AFS project. The European students are from Germany, Greece and Denmark.

On December 18 Miss Jane Paton, principal of Stanley School, will bring students from Stanley School to sing Christmas carols for the Soroptimists.

Even Rats Healthier with Good Food, Pupils Show

Mrs. Kathryn Guppy and her third grade class at the Lafayette Elementary School started two rats on a poor-diet experiment last October 26.

For 24 days the rats lived on soft drinks, white bread, jam, jelly, potato chips, candy, butter, cookies, cake crumbs and doughnuts.

TWO OTHER RATS were fed a good diet of meat, fowl, fish, cheese, eggs, wheat, bread, vegetables, fruit and milk. Food for these latter meals was donated by the Lafayette School cafeteria from the regular menus.

Results of the experiment showed that the first of the two rats on the unhealthy diet gained 40 grams and the other gained about 30 grams. One of the rats on the good diet gained 120 grams and the other 90 grams.

THE RATS for the experiment were loaned to the Lafayette School by the American Red Cross in Walnut Creek.

According to Mrs. Guppy, the children in her class have learned many lessons from this project.

They have had practical experience in measuring and weighing and also in pet care. Charts of the progress of the two sets of rodents have been kept by the children and are on display in Room 16 of the school.

An appreciation of the visual effects of good nutrition is another lesson learned by these third grade children through their work on this rat feeding project, according to Martin Tucker, school principal.

A MOBILE DISPLAY of this experiment was shown to all classes of the school. Children of the class moved their rats, cages, charts, scales, and rulers from room to room and explained their work.

A discussion of this project was presented by these third grade students to members of the school PTA at a meeting last night.

Pupils Turn from TV to Study for Space Knowledge

Sixth grade pupils at the Vallecito School recently decided to take a second and more serious look at their space suits, inter-planetary TV fantasy and the celestial bodies twinkling above.

Inspired by the ever-growing interest in our solar and galaxial neighbors, the students launched a study of astronomy, which included the history of the science.

The pupils learned about the discovery of each planet and facts about each, the relationship of each planet and star, the Milky Way, galaxies beyond the Milky Way, and the recent discovery of Geographos, a flying rock one mile wide which wings within the Earth's orbit.

The sixth graders prepared a chart showing the sun and the position of each of its planets.

The study was concluded with oral reports by the students which were presented to other classes in the school.

The class is currently compiling a booklet entitled "Our Universe," which will correlate the science experiences with art and language activities.

Orinda Garden Club Tea Is Lavish in Yule Decor

The Orinda Garden Club started the Christmas season early this year when it held its traditional Christmas tea from 1 to 4 p.m. yesterday at the Camino Sobrante home of Mrs. C. W. Merrill.

Mrs. Arthur Pedersen, club president, and Mrs. James Anderson, arrangements chairman, assisted Mrs. Merrill in greeting guests.

As is customary, nearly every member of the Garden Club brought some Christmas arrangement or decorated some part of the house.

OUTDOORS, near the entrance, Mrs. Ronald Schacht decorated a lamp post with gay garlands, using Italian fruit, and on the front door Mrs. Arthur Johnson and Mrs. Edward Rogers placed a swath of green boughs held by a large green bow with miniature gold musical instruments pinned to the streamers.

In the entry hall guests first saw a wreath of natural greens done by Mrs. C. Walter Cole, and then a wreath made from gilded pine cones by Mrs. D. C. Lamb. On a table underneath a bronze mirror, Mrs. W. E. Kilgo and Mrs. Woodburn Lamb arranged gilded leaves and greens in a Chinese brass bowl. Near by stood small gilded redwood cone Christmas trees done by Mrs. William Fleeger.

On an altar table with gold and crystal candelabra, Mrs. Fred Crawshaw and Mrs. Joseph Lang arranged gilded magnolia leaves and gold and crystal snow flakes. On the wall were small angel sconces holding white candles surrounded with tiny green and gold wreaths and backed by small gold fans.

ON THE STAIRWAY from the entry hall Mrs. Melvin Jacobus and Mrs. Jay Jacobus decorated the banister with a garland of greens laced with dark red ribbon, each loop caught with a gold-encrusted ornament. At the foot of the stairway Mrs. Edward Russ placed a fat Santa Claus.

In the patio at the end of the hall one could glimpse a wheelbarrow, hand-carved by Mrs. Merrill, holding Mrs. Paul Pollaczek's arrangement of loquat sprays, red Pyracantha clusters and white blossoms from a Chinese rice paper plant.

In the living room Mrs. Lindsey Spight and Mrs. George Clifford used natural pine boughs sprayed with snow and trimmed with hand-made metal ornaments to decorate a chest. Mrs. H. F. Eickmeyer backed a rose quartz figurine with an arrangement of gilded dried weed pods and hydrangea blossoms.

ON A TABLE NEAR a window stood a small gold metal Christmas tree on a base of Cedar boughs, done by Mrs. Beach Dunn Jr. and Mrs. Lester Gease. Mrs. E. J. Unruh decorated green boughs with glittering Christmas balls, which she had made herself from velvet ribbon, gold bead and "jewels."

In the large window in the library stood a tall Christmas tree done by Mrs. Milton Selby and Mrs. Roger Stark in the traditional manner and covered with old-fashioned ornaments and fat bows.

Mrs. Ben Johnson and Mrs. Fred Muvany decorated chests on either side of the tree with antique Japanese brass bowls filled with gilded grapes and pineapple and accented with green velvet ribbon. Mrs. James Anderson placed an arrangement of polished driftwood and green Japanese fish net floats on a small table nearby. Traditional Christmas greens were used in an arrangement by Mrs. Norman Tuttle on top of the radio.

MRS. KENDRIC Morrish and Mrs. Haywood Gathings created an Oriental effect by using pleated fans in red and white as a background for small red and white lanterns and a group of colorfully-wrapped Christmas gifts.

On the tea table in the dining room Mrs. Arthur Pedersen and Mrs. Thornton Grimes filled a three-tiered glass epergne with red carnations and flanked it with antique crystal candelabra with red candles.

On the buffet under a Venetian mirror, Mrs. E. F. Hockenbeamer and Mrs. J. M. Rodwell used silvered magnolia leaves and ornaments with magnolia-leaf swags.

ASSISTING Mrs. Anderson with decoration arrangements were Mesdames C. Walter Cole, Edward Russ, F. A. Muvany and Paul Pollaczek. Mrs. George Gori was in charge of tea arrangements, and assisting her were Mesdames Roger Stark, Ambrose Macdonald, Norris Wiggins and F. K. Bottomley.

Founder and associate Garden Club members who poured during the tea hour were Mesdames H. B. Symes, R. W. Breuner, D. C. Lamb, Leon Woolsey, C. W. Merrill, Henry Gentry and Wallace Ballinger.

Members Ready for Alumnae Party

The year book of the East Bay Alumnae Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority marks the date of December 12 for its annual Christmas party, to be held at 7:45 p.m. in the Piedmont home of Mrs. Don Hucke, with a gala evening of Yuletide cheer and games of cards.

Members are asked to come, armed with a small unwrapped toy, to be placed beneath the lighted tree. These gifts for needy small fry will be later turned over to the Berkeley Family and Children's Bureau, main philanthropic project of the association.

Plans for the event were completed at a meeting of the Board of Directors the evening of November 27 in the home of Mrs. Hucke, with Mrs. Arthur C. Scheu of Lafayette, president, presiding.

Mrs. George Parnham of Orinda, general chairman, will be assisted by Mesdames David C. Brain, George Howes, R. B. Brodrick, William Sheppard, George Lemke, B. S. Ginsburg, Scheu and S. L. Hutton.

A program of unusual and rarely heard Christmas music will be offered by the Berkeley Chamber Singers in their concert Sunday at 8 p.m. at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Orinda.

Elaborate Yule Trees to Shine at Hospital Show

A Christmas tree trimmed with literally hundreds of autographs of famous people will be a feature of the 6th annual Festival of Christmas Trees, according to word received here today from Mrs. George Thompson, staging chairman, of Cypress Branch, Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

Mrs. Thompson, an active worker for the hospital, resides at 821 Reliez Station Road, Lafayette.

The "Autograph Tree" as it is called, will be just one of some 175 trees to go on sale and on display December 13-16, when the hospital branches stage their annual gala Christmas fund raising event at the Hotel Claremont in Berkeley.

The exhibit is open from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. daily. President and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower were among the first to respond to the hospital's request for autographs. Other early autographs received came from General James Doolittle, actress Katherine Cornell and Lynn Fontanne; mystery writer, Earl Stanley Gardner, while Bing Crosby and Bob Hope stopped long enough on the Road to Somewhere to send their greetings with their signatures.

Greetings from Rome came from Clare Booth Luce, and also from her successor to the post of ambassador to Italy, James D. Zellerbach, who sent two autographs—one on a card to be used in trimming the tree, the other on the bottom of a generous check "as a contribution toward your work at the Children's Hospital."

This donation was made in the name of J. D. and Hana Zellerbach Fund.

Tickets for the Festival of Christmas Trees are available in advance from Branch members, and will also be available at the door during show days. Admission is 25 cents for children and Refreshments following the yuletide theme were served at individual tables centered with traditional red berries and candles. Mrs. Louis Woytek and Mrs. William Wade are permanent hostesses for the organization.

Juvenile Hall Unit Launches Drive

"My name is Alice. I am six years old. I want a doll, please." This is typical of the messages received by the Juvenile Hall Auxiliary during its current Christmas project of providing gifts for wards of the Juvenile Court in placement throughout the county and in residence in Juvenile Court.

Alice is not only a foster child, but has cerebral palsy. So her doll must be a special one. She must be large to be held more easily, and her clothes must be made with zippers instead of buttons, while her shoes must snap rather than buckle or button. Alice's doll has been purchased by the Auxiliary, and clothing is being made, but she must be paid for!

Alice is just one of nearly 500 children who are on the list of county children receiving Christmas gifts through the Auxiliary.

"By receiving this gift, Alice will also receive assurance that someone believes she is important," said Mrs. Sallie Hoff, holiday chairman for the Auxiliary.

The list of requests includes gifts of clothing, dolls and doll equipment, miscellaneous small children's and teen-agers' gifts, sporting goods, wheel toys, educational toys and materials.

Mrs. Hoff said, "We are particularly concerned about the wishes and needs of the teenagers. These youngsters very often need a bicycle, a suit, a watch or perhaps a small radio. The need may stem from a practical one, or it may be psychological, but regardless it is a real need expressed by the children. It symbolizes sometimes how one child feels among a group of youngsters his own age; of how important they feel inside, especially under stress from being away from their own family. We are trying to fill these needs because we feel these children are entitled to this assurance."

Auxiliary representatives assisting in this project are: Concord area, Mrs. Henry Rae, MU 5-3897; Martinez, Mrs. Stuart Patterson, Mar Line 2-3580-W; Pleasant Hill, Mrs. George Robson, MU 2-1816; Walnut Creek area, Mrs. Richard Snyder, YE 5-5333; or Mrs. Robert Adams, YE 5-5731.

In Lafayette, Mrs. Orville Sammann, AT 3-2550 or Mrs. Oscar Busch, YE 4-9010; Orinda, Mrs. Grant Powell, DR 8-832; Alamo, Mrs. George Johannson, VE 7-4490; Danville, Mrs. F. P. Longergan, Auxiliary president, VE 7-2002; Richmond area, Mrs. Gayle Nichols, BE 3-116, and Antioch-Pittsburg area, Mrs. Jeanne Wysocki, PL 4-0431.

Information about gifts needed may be obtained from any of the above or from Mrs. Hoff at YE 4-4873, or the Auxiliary office at Juvenile Hall, Martinez 2160.

Donations of money toward the project may be mailed directly to the Juvenile Hall Auxiliary, Arnold Industrial Highway, Martinez.

Helicopter Service in Bay Area to be Studied

A study of possible inception of helicopter service in 10 Bay Area Counties will begin soon under Gil Young of Pittsburg. He is county chairman for the Bay Area Council's helicopter subcommittee.

The appointment of Young as county chairman was announced during a recent meeting in Martinez of the County Development Committee.

Young was already chairman of the Citizen's Airport Advisory Committee.

DURING THE meeting, an Oakland Chamber of Commerce film advertising Alameda County was shown.

Discussion was held on the possibility of producing a similar film about Contra Costa County.

The Alameda film, shown by Frank Piva, cost $6000 and presented industrial, living and recreation conditions in Alameda County. He suggested that a similar production should not be considered for a cost less than $10,000. He said his organization's advertising budget is $70,000 annually.

"Perhaps," Piva said, "a program could be worked out for joint production of a film by Contra Costa and Alameda counties."

PRODUCTION possibilities will be considered by the development association directors at a later meeting.

The directors heard a letter from Wesley Bush of Antioch, president of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Contra Costa, recommending the retention by the county of Stanford Research Institute to make an industrial survey.

It was referred to the association's advisory committee.

Aubrey Macomber of Martinez, chairman of the rapid transit committee of the association, gave a comprehensive report on a two-day San Francisco meeting that considered district creation by legislation, covering many changes suggested in the original draft and positions taken by representatives of various areas and cities.

Edward M. Larmer, Walnut Creek, chairman of the highways committee, reported on the Cummings Skyway opening observance, the Martinez-Benicia ferry inauguration, developments on the Shepherd Canyon routing controversy, plans for a new Broadway low level tunnel and an upcoming highways committee meeting of the California State Chamber of Commerce, of which he is a member.

Music Program Planned by New Church on Sunday

Musical varieties presented by violinist Lois Veit, Mrs. Gwen Adams, contralto soloist, and Judy Adams, 14 year old vocalist and marimba player, will highlight three services unday in the Walnut Creek Bible Church.

The three services will be as follows: 10:30 a.m. morning worship, will have Rev. Harold L. Adams speaking on "Christ in the Midst." A revival rally at 2:45 will have the afternoon message "Is This America's Hour?"

This deals with the scriptural outlook for our nation according to Bible prophecy.

The final service for the day will be from 7 p.m. to 8:30, arranged at an early hour, so that the entire family, including the children may attend. Rev. Adams will speak on "Three Things which God Can Not Do."

Services will be held Wednesday night at 7:30 also in the Veterans Memorial Hall. Additional programs are conducted on the radio KECC Monday through Friday at 8:20 a.m. It is called the "Beams of Light."

A rally service last Sunday marked the opening of this new church.

With delegates from other areas, the attendance exceeded 150 people. An invitation was extended to persons desiring to enjoy the ministry and services of Rev. Adams and his party.

Smith of the Pleasant Hill Community Baptist Church. The exhibit will continue through January 10. Hours are 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesdays through Fridays. — Sun photo by Mattson.

High Schools Drill Drivers

A long-range campaign to reduce traffic accidents is under way this year at Acalanes, Las Lomas and Miramonte high schools.

These schools, along with more than 7800 schools in the United States, are offering a course in driver training as part of their curricula.

Students receive actual behind-the-wheel training in automobiles loaned to the schools by local dealers. Kett-White Motor Company is loaning cars to Las Lomas and Miramonte, Parker-Robb Chevrolet is loaning a car to Acalanes.

The cars have been equipped with dual brake and clutch controls supplied at cost by the California State Automobile Association.

Neil M. Parsons, district superintendent, announces that instructors for the classes are: John McLean (Acalanes), Chandler Kjos and Edward Lahey (Las Lomas), and Donald Phillips (Miramonte). Arrangements for procurement

'Holly' Bazaar Attracts Many

The Lafayette Suburban Juniors' Holly Holidays Bazaar last Saturday was attended by many local and out-of-town women and children. Santa Claus listened to the various wants of the excited children. The affair was held at the Veterans Memorial Building, Lafayette.

While guests were having their refreshments musical renditions were supplied by a group of young musicians. They were Bob Johnson and Dennis Mann, cello; Sandra Johnson and Carol Green, violin; Sharon Carlson and Margaret Ellis, piano, and Rodger Hendricks, clarinet.

Mrs. Edward C. Allen, president, states that they will have a booth at the Lakeview Juniors Bazaar tomorrow at the new Sailboat House, Lake Merritt, Oakland, from 1 to 6 p.m.

Many of the Lafayette Suburban Juniors will relax by seeing "Seven Wonders of the World" Cinema in San Francisco, this being a district project, with the ticket proceeds going toward UNICEF donations.

Mrs. Leo Schell may be contacted for further arrangements.

Jaycees Honor Simonds; Plan Yule Carol Festival

Jim Simonds, membership chairman, was presented the "Jaycee of the Month" Award by President Hans Beetz at the Monday night meeting of the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce at El Nido Ranch.

Simonds and his committee have increased the Lafayette Jaycees' strength by some 26 new members in the September-November annual membership drive, Beetz stated.

Total membership of the local is now 69 members.

On December 19 the Lafayette Jaycees will present the fourth annual Christmas Festival at Acalanes High School auditorium. The Lafayette Jaycees, sponsors of this event, have been organizing the program for the past several weeks.

Jim Herrick, co-chairman with Dick Kohler, states that seven church groups from Central Contra Costa County will have choirs participating this year.

THE PROGRAM is made possible, Herrick adds, by the donations of local merchants who each year have participated in the event.

No admission is to be charged, Herrick points out, but he suggests that each person attending bring a can of food, which will be donated to local welfare agencies.

Refreshments are to be served at the festival by the Jaycee-ettes, wives of the Jaycees.

Present plans are that the program will be broadcast over Stations KROW, Oakland, and KECC, Pittsburg, Herrick reports.

Red Cross Seeking Funds For Refugee Hungarians

Local plans for an emergency fund drive for Hungarian Refugee Relief, launched last week by the American Red Cross, have been completed. Mt. Diablo Chairman Robert I. Schroder announced.

Since there will be no door-to-door collections, residents were urged to mail or bring their contributions to the Mt. Diablo chapter office, 1395 Ygnacio Ave., Walnut Creek.

Tables have also been provided in many of the local banks and donations may be left there, he said.

Funds collected are to be used to provide food, clothing, fuel and medical supplies for those still remaining inside Hungary and for the 70,000 refugees who escaped into Austria.

Although the border has been sealed, permission has been granted to the all-Swiss International Committee of Red Cross to move relief supplies into the country and to supervise their distribution, Schroder said.

Sorority Moms To Hold Yule Family Dinner

The Mothers' Club of Mu Chapter, Delta Zeta, will hold their traditional Christmas family dinner Sunday afternoon at 4:30 at the Sorority House in Berkeley.

The affair will be under the direction of Mrs. M. L. Spealman, president, and Mrs. H. F. Schroder, vice-president and general chairman.

Assisting chairmen include Mesdames A. L. Anderson and E. M. Lindsay, tickets and reservations; L. R. Jackson, decorations; H. W. Read, table setting; J. T. Hegam, serving; L. H. Matheson, hospitality and E. H. Fisher, publicity.

Entertainment will be provided by sorority members.

Dinner guests will be welcomed by Mrs. H. A. Miller, house mother, and member of the hospitality committee.

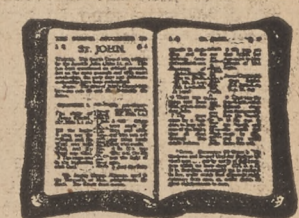

Cubs Planning Holiday Party At Local School

Preparations are now under way for a Cub Pack 42 Christmas party, to be held at the Walnut Creek School on December 20 at 7:30 p.m.

Under the direction of Cubmaster George Merten, the committeemen include Chairman Bill Jasper, helpers' Chuck Cunningham, Ray Palmer, Fred LeClair and Manuel Canapa.

All den mothers and parents are preparing special treats for each of their dens. The pack will furnish the coffee and soft drinks.

Santa Claus will be there to see that each cub and his brother or sister will receive a gift.

Cause of 35% Increase in Assessed Values is Traced

The 35 per cent increase in assessed values applied last year to Contra Costa County is mainly due to lack of manpower, said the county assessors' office, Assessor C. L. Dunklee said this week.

A speedup vitally necessary in appraisals is also impeded by the inadequate salary for staff members and crowded conditions in the present office, he added.

And remodeling of the Court House will further reduce the size of the already-packed office. "I want to take this opportunity to offer my cooperation to any review of my department."

"Perhaps this is the only way that I can make the functions and requirements of this department known to the public."

"Beyond a doubt the end result of this review will point up the fact that the Assessor's staff must be expanded to provide the equalization in assessments that is so obviously necessary."

"This is no new problem. In my hand is a copy of a letter, written to the Board of Supervisors over five years ago by the previous Assessor, professing the need for a very substantial increase in the staff."

"HAD THIS request been acted upon it is very doubtful if the State Board of Equalization would have been required to increase the assessed values by 35%, as they did last year."

"This statement does not mean that I am endorsing the State Board's action."

"About that matter I feel just as I did a year ago, that an across-the-board increase only magnifies any inequities that may exist, and would work an undue hardship on this county."

Dick Pollock New Aquatic Chief of PH Rec District

Michael M. F. Kiely, superintendent of the Pleasant Hill Park, Recreation and Parkway District, today announced the District's employment of Richard Pollock as aquatic and recreation supervisor.

Pollock attended the University of California from 1949 to 1951, majoring in physical education, lettered in swimming, diving, gymnastics and was a member of the judo team.

He was a member of the Big "C" and Circle "C" Society and served as president of the Circle "C" Society in 1951. He attended Ridgewood Military Academy at Woodland Hills, and graduated as college preparatory student. Lettered in football, baseball, basketball and track. Pollock has completed many special training courses including Athens Athletic Club, Synchroized Swimming Clinic in 1951 and 1955; conference on pool operation and maintenance conducted by the Contra Costa County Health Department, and through the American National Red Cross attended Aquatic School and Small Craft School, and is a first aid instructor, water safety instructor.

Pollock has had experience as an aquatic instructor at the Berkeley Tennis Club, teaching swimming, diving, life-saving, synchroized swimming, skin and lung diving and first aid, as well as serving as maintenance engineer at the pool; Albany High School Pool teaching a full education swimming classes; swimming coach in Korea for the U.S. Army; East Bay Regional Park District, teaching life saving and first aid; swimming and first aid instructor for the 6th Division, Fort Ord; University of California swimming instructor and diving coach for the 1950 swim team; assistant instructor for water safety instructor courses in Berkeley.

Pollock won the diving championship, U.S. Army Far East in 1954, the championship in the 8th Army in Korea, second place in the International Armed Forces Championship in the Far East.

His recreational experience includes special service officer for the 2nd Infantry Division Artillery in Korea; director of summer camp, Penryn, California, and recreational director and commandant, Ridgewood Military Academy at Woodland Hills.

Pollock's duties for the Pleasant Hill Park, Recreation and Parkway District will include the programming of the swimming lessons and the recreational swimming at the Pleasant Hill pool as well as maintenance of the pool and assisting the superintendent in recreational activities.

His personal hobbies are flying, holding a private single engine and seaplane license; and skin diving, being president of Deep Diving, an East Bay Club promoting safety and education in skin and lung diving.

Next Week Sees Pre-Vacation Prep Windups

Clubs in the Diablo Valley Athletic League are midway through their practice games, and at this stage are beginning to get an idea of what their starting lineups will probably be come the league openers in mid-January.

Some are seeking more scoring punch, others better defense, while still others are trying to get height in an attempt for better control on the backboards.

This week and next will wind up play prior to Christmas vacation. Practice sessions, under a new Board of Managers ruling, can be held during the holiday season, but games are taboo.

LAS LOMAS appears to be steadily improving, and with a top scorer in Joe Sibley, sharpshooting forward, the Knights could spell trouble once they get organized, with it top five on the floor.

Yesterday they were scheduled to play San Ramon High at Danville in a 3:15 p.m. game.

Next week they receive the acid test when they face the "always good" Albany Cougars, who are coached by Craig Ortlieb, one-time Acalanes teacher. The game is set for 3:15 p.m. at Albany on Tuesday.

Next Friday the Knights trail an Oakland Athletic League foe when they face Oakland High on the city hardwood. Game time here is 3:15 p.m.

MIRAMONTE HIGH plays Alhambra at Martinez in a 3:15 encounter this afternoon.

Coach Bob Callan has shaken his lineup a bit and starts with Floyd Blaney and Tim Crawford up front, with John Coffey at the pivot, it's Randy Young and Dixon Farmer at the guard slots.

Next Friday the Matadors face the Acalanes junior varsity at Acalanes at 3:15 p.m.

THE PLEASANT HILL Rams play San Ramon at the Pleasant Hill gym next Tuesday, starting with the Bees at 3:30 p.m.

The Rams are especially tough at home in a gym that holds little more than the players.

Next Thursday the Rams go to San Francisco to try their luck with Balboa High, and this one could tell pretty much just how far the Rams will go in current play.

THE ACALANES DONS play Livermore at Acalanes next Tuesday, to wind up their year until after the first of the year.

Livermore has already been defeated by the Rams of Pleasant Hill, and comparative scores could give some showing of how the Dons and Rams stack up.

Neither is it very difficult to determine why special districts and the various taxing agencies have increased their expenditures since the amount of money they spend is governed by the assessed valuation of said district.

"If you up the assessed valuation, you up the capacity to spend by a corresponding amount."

"... I wish to reiterate my requests to the Civil Service Commission that a more equitable salary schedule be applied to so-called appraisal personnel within the county. We cannot afford to lose trained appraisers to comparable or less responsible jobs on which the salary is more attractive."

"I do not wish to place myself or staff in a position of controversy with the board — but by the same token, I do not wish to stand by and see my staff take the brunt of a situation the remedy of which should have been met years ago."

"Any investigation of assessment procedure or administration will result in sustaining the premise that immediate equalization in the face of rising costs and rates is mandatory..."

"... Again in July I approached the Administrator, requesting action on the previous requests. I was advised that if I waited several months my plans would have a chance for greater success."

"IN SPITE OF recent reminders, these requests are still on my desk."

"My staff is woefully inadequate. The Division of Assessment, Standards of the State Board of Equalization recommended an increase of over 100 per cent in the size of the office some time ago."

"The money and effort put into the assessment functions by other counties comparable to Contra Costa County was much greater, as was indicated by the size of their staff and their annual budget."

"One of my first actions after taking office was to warn the Board that Contra Costa County might be in line for an across-the-board increase in assessed values, and that this increase, if it came, would be made by the State Board of Equalization."

"Then in March, three months later, I presented a detailed plan for reorganization of the Assessor's office."

"It wasn't until July that this request was acted upon by the Board of Supervisors, and then it was less than a week later that the 35 percent increase was ordered by the State Board of Equalization."

"Finally, in November, 1955, I was allowed to hire the first contingent of 26 people. The major portion of this group was put to work equalizing values in one section of the county."

"Since this left only three months to make the property appraisals for this year's tax roll, none of these values made by the equalization team have been assessed as a basis for this year's assessments."

Christmas Seal Drive Getting Big Response

"Why here's my own check. I thought that writing looked familiar," a volunteer worker exclaimed as she opened a letter at the TB Association headquarters where Christmas Seal returns are being counted.

She was one of many who are spending time every day at the offices in Martinez counting returns from the annual mailing of Seals according to A. F. Bray Jr., president of the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association.

More than $15,000 has been collected already.

Many of the return envelopes bring in notes and comments on the Christmas Seals and the work of the association, Bray said.

THIS YEAR most people seem to like the Christmas Seals with the little boy and girl carrying the double-barred cross. There have been years when the majority of comments on the design of the Christmas Seal have been different.

About one-third of the people take time to enclose a note thanking the association for giving them the opportunity to purchase Christmas seals and help in the fight to beat TB, Bray said.

There are also comments from people explaining that they are enclosing one dollar for just one sheet of Christmas Seals because of sickness or hard luck this year and that they hope to do more next year.

One woman even wrote in saying she could only send one dollar now, but that she was keeping all three sheets of Christmas seals and would send the rest later—sort of installment buying of Christmas Seals.

ALL CONTRIBUTIONS, large or small, are welcome, Bray said, and all money received from the sale of Christmas Seals will be used to further the program of the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association in its efforts to eradicate tuberculosis, which is still a problem in Contra Costa County as well as throughout the world.

Last year alone, 145 new cases of tuberculosis were found in the county and 25 persons died of this disease, Bray said.

Christmas Seal dollars are spent for facilities to find unknown cases of tuberculosis, health education of the people so they will know about the disease.

Also rehabilitation services to help tuberculosis patients prepare for the day they will come home cured, and medical research that may one day find the "magic bullet" that will finish off TB forever.

Contra Costa Title Will Open W.C. Branch Monday

Monday will see the opening of a brand new title company branch office in Walnut Creek when Contra Costa County Title Company opens its doors at 1321 Locust Street.

The office, which is housed in a sparkling new building erected for the purpose, is the second branch and third office of the title company which was established under a different name in 1887.

Directing the affairs of the Walnut Creek Branch will be Louis N. LaBrie who has been associated with the company for the past 20 years, three and a half of which he served in the United States forces during World War II.

LaBrie is a title examiner and has wide experience in examining titles and closing escrows.

Special service will be available to residents of the Central Contra Costa area as the new branch is equipped with teletype facilities connected directly with the Martinez office where county records are examined.

"WE WILL BE able to provide the fastest service possible for local residents," said LaBrie. "The nicest thing of all for them is that everything will be handled here. There is no more need for anybody in this part of the county to have to go to Martinez any more for title transactions."

In issuing title insurance the company handles an escrow, taking care of the interests of all parties in the deal, closes the escrow, records the papers, accounts to all parties and issues the policy of title insurance.

President of the company is Les Mullen.

March of Dimes Drive Gets Richmond Leader

John J. Sheridan, vice-president and business agent of the Teamsters and Warehouse Union, Local 315 and a former mayor of Richmond, has been named March of Dimes chairman for Contra Costa County.

Announcement of Sheridan's appointment to head the 1957 polio drive was made by Malcolm M. Champlin, March of Dimes chairman for Northern California.

CHAMPLIN said Sheridan served as vice-chairman of the Contra Costa County March of Dimes last year.

Sheridan has had a distinguished career as a public official, serving as mayor of Richmond for two terms and as an elected member of the Richmond City Council since 1951.

He is currently a member of the Board of Governors of the San Francisco Bay Area Council, the Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission, and the San Francisco World Trade Authority.

SHERIDAN said, "We must not let the exciting discovery of an effective polio vaccine blind us to the fact that for many the preventive came too late."

We have not beaten polio yet—not while men, women and children are still being stricken by this disease—not while thousands of people are still struggling to regain their health and resume their places in industry, homes, or school."

Art Group Helps Member To Local Fame

The Diablo Art Association has announced that Louis Gutierrez, fellow member and student at San Jose State College, received one of the tuition scholarships awarded by Mexico's International School of Fine Arts, Instituto Allende.

Gutierrez, son of Mrs. Jesus Garcia, 355 West First Street, Pittsburg, was born in that city. He attended the East Contra Costa Jr. College where he was majoring in business, electing to take only one course in art.

This however, was enough to indicate to his instructor, Miss Harriet Middleton, that he should pay more attention to this field.

He then enrolled at the San Jose State College and became a Fine Arts Major, receiving his B.A. last year.

Gutierrez has exhibited his works throughout the county for the past two years.

Besides winning a first and second place at the County Fair this year, his painting "A Taste Of Death," won the Best of Show Award.

At the recent fourth Annual Art Show of the Christ the King Catholic Church, he won two Honorable Mentions.

As a member of the Diablo Art Association, he has a water color, "Coast of Santa Cruz" hanging with that organization's exhibit in the San Francisco Art Festival.

He had a one man show in July at the Association's gallery in the Contra Costa Stationers at Walnut Creek.

He has exhibited with the D. A.A. in both the 1955 and 1956 Walnut Creek Walnut Festival Art Shows as well as in the 1956 Diablo Pageant of Arts in Walnut Creek.

It was at the Valley Art Center's eighth Annual County Show that this student came to the attention of its president, Michael Czaja, and Earl Kaster. Both urged Louis to enter the San Miguel Allende competition.

Cadillac

Surpasses its Own Great Reputation!

You're looking at a mighty surprised man.

Almost all of his adult life he has owned and driven Cadillac cars. And so, when he decided to take an hour out from his busy schedule to see and drive the new 1957 Cadillac, he thought he knew about what to expect.

Well, here he is—barely under way in the city—and already he is learning the startling truth.

He is learning that nothing could adequately prepare a man for the new "car of cars"—not even Cadillac ownership itself!

He suspected it, in fact, the instant he stepped into the showroom and caught his first glimpse of this newest Cadillac creation. This was an entirely new kind of Cadillac beauty—brilliantly fresh in line and in contour.

And then he opened the door and swung into the driver's seat—and found added evidence all around him. On every side were new miracles of interior beauty and comfort and convenience.

And when he turned the key and put his foot on the accelerator, his sentiment grew to conviction. The car was incredibly nimble and quiet and smooth of ride.

Surprised, did we say? Just wait until he hits the open highway and receives the final verdict.

No question about it—this is the Cadillac that literally surpasses its own great reputation!

We suggest that you come in soon to see and drive this most surprising new Cadillac in fifty-four years. It's an experience you shouldn't postpone—and one you'll not soon forget.

Ram Varsity Hoop Squad Really Rolls

Pleasant Hill Quintet Nabs Three in Row

The Pleasant Hill High School Bee basketball team has a win against two losses in its first three outings. Coach Art Poulis' varsity has served notice that it will be tough to deal with by rolling to three wins in three tries.

The scoring punch has been provided by a couple of better-than-6-foot lads in Guard Bob Ritchie and Center Mike Mayne. To date they have been the mainstay of the Rams' offense, which has hit over the 40-point mark in each game.

THE RAMS opened their season by taking to the road to play Harry Ellis of Richmond, and it proved to be a profitable venture as they racked up the opposition, 52-43.

Guard Bob Ritchie and Center Mike Mayne were heavy guns in the scoring column. Ritchie bagged 20 on eight field goals and four from the free throw line. Mayne had a nifty 14 of his own on four field goals and six free throws.

In the preliminary the Ram quintet went down 45-22, as the home club had too much speed on the floor and too much accuracy at the hoop.

LAST FRIDAY found the Rams playing host. While the Bees were edged by the visiting Livermore five, 38-34, the varsity club hit the win column again with a convincing 46-33 final score.

It didn't look so good for the home varsity club when the visiting Cowboys rolled to a 13-9 lead. Pleasant Hill got on its high horse in the second quarter, however, when it poured 19 points through the hoop to the opponents' 7 and took a 28-20 halftime lead.

Guard Bob Ritchie found the range with three field goals in a row, to put the Rams ahead — and that's where they stayed, making it 33-25 at the three-quarter mark and then going on for a 46-33 win.

Ritchie was the game's top scorer, pumping 21 points through the mesh on eight field goals and five from the free throw line. Center Mike Mayne was next in the scoring for the winners, getting 10 points on four field goals and two counters via the free throw line.

LAST TUESDAY proved to be a red-letter day for the Ram quintets as the Bees copped a convincing 37-21 win over visiting De Anza of Richmond, while Art Poulis' team hit the hoop with regularity, to come through with a 50-35 win.

The Rams wasted little time in varsity play as they posted a commanding 20-7 opening quarter lead and were well ahead at halftime as they left the floor with a 29-11 advantage.

The Rams quickened the pace in the third frame, to make the count 42-20, and then coasted to a 50-35 win, with reserves seeing a good part of the late game action.

IT WAS THE SAME story in scoring as Ritchie used his 6-foot, 1-inch frame to advantage, to wind up with 14 points (6 F.G. — 2 F.T.) and teammate Center Mike Mayne also had 14 (5 F.G. — 4 F.T.).

In the opening period Ritchie had 8 while Mayne had 6, to ice the game from the outset.

Mayne also brought attention with his all-around defensive play, but in particular with his work in getting the ball off the boards, which was instrumental in giving the Rams ball control, which they put to advantage with their good-for-early-season scoring.

Knight Cagers Split Victories

The Las Lomas basketball teams have played twice to date and in four games (varsity and Bees) have come up with two wins and two losses.

Opening games were played at Las Lomas last Friday, and the victors were the Piedmont hoopers.

In the Bee game opener, the "city slickers" proved to be anything but that as they managed but 7 points over the route while the Little Knights scored 27 points for an easy win.

Guard Steve Moore was the winners' standout as he nailed down 10 points coming on five successful field goals.

IN THE VARSITY encounter Piedmont took a 10-6 first quarter lead, only to have the Knights come back with a 16-point scoring spurge in the second quarter while holding the Highlanders to 9.

That gave the Knights a 22-19 halftime advantage, but Piedmont wasted little time in getting it back as they outscored the home club 18-10 in the third canto and then hung on for a 47-41 win.

Forwards Joe Sibley and Doug Potter were the Knights' big guns as they came up with 16 and 9 points, respectively.

IN THE SECOND pair of games, last Tuesday, the Knights again played host, with the John Swett Indians of Crockett furnishing the competition.

In the Bee preliminary the Sugar City five took an 18-10 halftime lead and made it 38-25 at the final buzzer.

Guard Bob Gomez was the Knight's top scorer with 13 points (5 F.G. — 3 F.T.).

IN THE VARSITY game the Knights had it pretty much their own way as they cleared the bench, using 15 players while surging to a 59-41 victory.

Sportsman Trophy is Las Lomas' for Keeps

Las Lomas High School on Tuesday became permanent owners of the football sportsman trophy after earning the right to display it for the third consecutive season.

The cup is a prized possession in the Contra Costa Division of the Diablo Valley Athletic League. It was awarded to Las Lomas High School student body as the result of voting at the seven high schools of the Contra Costa Division.

The first trophy, won by Mt. Diablo in 1952 and John Swett in 1953, had not left the custody of Las Lomas since its varsity entered league competition in 1954. The Las Lomas student body received the gold trophy at a special assembly.

Student body president Ken Stevens accepted it from Principal Leland S. Russell, who is president of the Diablo Valley Athletic League.

Rating items included on the ballots for the seven high schools emphasized the organization of the Las Lomas cheering section, cooperation with the yell leaders, support of the team at all times, conduct of the students in both cheering section and band during games, courtesy to opponents'.

In the final period the Knights used reserve players, and it developed into a free-wheeling deal, with the scoring coming from the free throw line, where each club got 10 points.

Forward Joe Sibley proved to be the game's sharpshooter as he racked up 18 points, all coming on field goals. Teammate Doug Potter posted 9 points (3 F.G. — 3 F.T.).

Las Lomas banged to a 26-17

Auto Association Gets Manager

Appointment of Thomas F. Campbell as office manager of the California State Automobile Association's Walnut Creek office was announced this week by Clifford R. Ward, manager of the Department of Field Operations for the AAA motorists' organization.

Campbell was promoted to the position from the Association's San Jose office where he was sales representative and where he first became associated with the CSAA.

The local office is at 2067 Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

Dons See-Saw In Busy Round Of Casaba Play

It's been a busy week for the Acalanes Dons as far as the hoop game goes, as they've been hard at it in practice games.

On November 27 in games played at Vallejo High the Dons Babes lost, 43-33, after playing a bang-up first half to lead 18-10, only to run out of gas in the final two quarters of play.

Guard Morgan Jellett was high for the scoring honors, with 16 points (5 F.G. — 6 F.T.).

In the varsity game Acalanes was toppled 45-35, with Vallejo leading 11-8 in the first period and never headed as they went on to win.

LAST FRIDAY the Alhambra Bulldogs came to town to split a pair of games with the Dons.

The Bulldogs edged the Dons for a 31-27 win.

The Dons' Guard Morgan Jellett was the game's top scorer with 10 points on four field goals and two free throws.

In the varsity encounter the Dons held a 25-16 halftime lead and then pulled away as they outscored the visitors 13-10 in quarter number 3.

MIDWAY in the final quarter Alhambra pulled up, only to have Acalanes explode in the final minute, to win comfortably, 54-39.

Top Dons scorers were Bill Freeman, who had six field goals and a like number of free throws, for an afternoon's total of 18.

Guard Rich Markstein had 11 points on four field goals and three free throws, with Forward John Phair not far behind with 10 points on five tosses from the floor.

LAST SATURDAY afternoon the Dons varsity traveled to the University of California, to play the 145-pounders. It was a short ride down but a long ride back, as they were colder than Santa at the North Pole and wound up with but two field goals — one by Guard Ron Nelson, the other by Forward Bill Freeman.

The final count was: Cal 53, Acalanes 19.

The Dons got back into the swing of things last Tuesday when they entertained Harry Ellis of Richmond.

Matadors Open With 45-29 Win

The Matadors of Miramonte opened their casaba season in fine style November 29 when they measured the Antioch junior varsity with a 45-29 win.

The game, played at Antioch, found the teams battling to a draw in the first quarter as it wound up 6-6.

In the second quarter, however, the tale was told when the Matadors opened up and really outscored the home town club — 21-2, to be exact.

Forward Dixon Farmer hit for three field goals, Center John Coffey had a pair and Guard Randy Young also had two field goals, to pace the torrid second quarter.

IN THE THIRD period Antioch outscored the Matadors 11-10 and did like wise in the final quarter, 10-8, largely due to the fact that Coach Bob Callan substituted freely, once he got a lead.

Dixon Farmer paced the game scoring, as he wound up with 18 points on eight field goals and two free throws.

A guard by the name of Kirkpatrick was tops for the losers as he had 16 points and impressed all with his all-around play.

COACH CALLAN expressed satisfaction with the win for an opener but stressed that there are many faults to be corrected.

Practice drills all week have been extensive in order to "mend the fences," and as a result several players have been shifted so as to get the best starting five.

Height has been a problem but that will be remedied by the insertion of several new faces into the lineup.

THIS AFTERNOON the Miramonte teams, frosh and varsity, go to Martinez to play the Alhambra frosh and junior varsity, starting at 3:30 p.m.

The tentative varsity lineup for Miramonte finds Bill Houston and Clint Danna at the forwards, John Coffey at center, with guards Dixon Farmer and Floyd Blaney rounding out the quintet.

Houston in particular impressed with his defensive play against Antioch, as he intercepted five passes.

They started slow as they trailed 5-0 before hitting for a field goal, then went on to a 14-7 first quarter lead. Richmond added 7 more points in the second quarter, while the Dons posted 11.

Sub Replaces Harrison In Olympic Swim Event

By ERWIN MATTSON

The Olympics are at an end, and probably one of the most disappointed kids in the world is George Harrison of Orinda, who was a member of Uncle Sam's swimming team.

George qualified for the relay team on the basis of his performance in the tryouts, but something happened once he reached Australia and when the event came off a substitute took his place.

Details of how and why are not available to me at this writing, but I do know that, as in many fields, politics are a part of the games.

To me, one who qualifies in the trials should compete unless he can't due to illness or an injury.

I REMEMBER the time the Olympics were held in Los Angeles and my good friend Eddie Nemir, at present boxing coach at the University of California, was a member of the U.S. Wrestling team.

He won the tryouts but when I saw him just before the games, along with his college coach, Henry Stone, he was plenty low, as he had just been told that a substitute would take his place.

The substitute happened to have been on the college team whose coach was mentoring the Olympic team!

Coach Stone went to work fast — he got some California executives and others high in Olympic circles, and in the end Nemir wrestled and went to the finals, ending up in the runner-up spot when he lost a split decision to Sweden's entry.

George's situation found him alone and with no one to go to bat for him. There may be a justifiable reason as to why he didn't compete. I could be — and hope that I am — wrong, but I'll bet it was a political maneuver. If it was, it is a blot that a kid who trained so diligently and made so many sacrifices received such treatment.

The Olympics, like many things, are idealistic in principle but have lots of maneuvering behind the scenes.

BASKETBALL is well on its way, and it won't be long before the league swings into action.

Pick the pennant race to be between Pittsburg and Diablo. Acalanes, Pleasant Hill, Las Lomas and Antioch look to be on a par, while Pacifica will battle to keep out of the cellar.

About New Developments And Coming Events

By BILL HAYWARD

BIGGEST NEWS YET . . . Federal Housing Administration up interest to 5 per cent . . . this was the prediction of many people "in the know" as far back as May of this year . . . actually it was expected that the Veterans Administration would play the first card in this direction and then to have the FHA follow suit . . . It's hard to tell these days what will come out of Washington on the "finance and money" level.

Of course the banks actually lend the money . . . it will be interesting to watch the pattern of policy change in banking circles . . . this is, I believe, the first time in history that UNCLE SAM has been willing to insure a loan of this type for anything above 4 1/2 per cent.

Local REALTORS are of the opinion that G.I. loans will also go up to 5 per cent along with FHA shortly after the first of the year . . . 1957 should be a BANNER year . . . the American people want new homes and are willing to pay a little extra for the privilege. The building industry in the United States will feel a definite SHOT IN THE ARM from this new directive . . . It's good news that travels in good company . . . and on the way, TELL A FRIEND.

BOULEVARD WAY . . . SARANAP AREA . . . McKie Roth — of Roth & Huff Construction Experts — should get a great big handshake and a big pack of compliments for the very handsome building just south of the existing Walnut Creek Sheet Metal location. Next time you are in the neighborhood stop in and look it over. McKie Roth too, must have complete confidence in Walnut Creek and the future . . . biggest contractors office yet . . . Opening ceremonies soon we hope.

CENTRAL CONTRA COSTA SANITARY DISTRICT OFFICE just north of the old Hendrick Piano location will be ready to take the Champagne and dedications come December 15 according to Gary Horstkotte, District Engineer.

"NUTS AND BOLTS" Ed Larmer of the Walnut Creek Hardware on Locust St. in Walnut Creek announces the moving of their retail operation to the corner of Locust and Walnut just one block north of the present location. Ed Larmer is the pioneer of Locust St., opening his store there just 11 year ago.

Locust Street has grown to be quite a shopping area in itself. Walnut Creek Hardware will still offer the greatest in builders' hardware along with the usual tops in service. The City School of Music, formerly in the Hendrick Bldg., will take over in Larmer's former location. Will Richmond, operator and owner of the Music School will move in sometime in January.

SKATERS HAVEN is packing them in. The youngsters as well as the grown-ups are pouring into this new recreation center. It's just across the street from STAN'S BRICK HOUSE on North Main Street.

GENERAL OFFICE EQUIPMENT CO. of Walnut Creek, corner of Locust and Cypress have also just completed an expansion program of interest to everyone. Did you know that Ed and wife Thelma Mielenz and their crew operate the largest office equipment service in the central part of the county. They have added approximately 1500 square feet to their showrooms and plant.

CONTRA COSTA TITLE COMPANY'S new office on Locust St. will open any day now. The signs are up and the lights are on. More notes on LOCUST STREET than usual.

THE NEW POST OFFICE SUB-STATION is in operation officially, according to Postmaster L. G. Bornholtz. Arroyo Way near the intersection of Ygnacio Ave. is the location of the new building and parking yard. LOCUST STREET . . . YEP! LOCUST STREET it still the location of the Main Post Office and will be for at least another 10 years according to the terms of a new lease recently signed between Uncle Sam and owner Bob Gould of Danville and Palm Springs.

Incidentally, if you get into any trouble during the Holidays don't worry, according to the California Bar Association 432 new attorneys just passed their Bar Examinations and are READY to try and keep us out of jail.

FLASH, Al Ingals, prominent Lafayette Realtor and owner of the Lafayette Realty Company has just announced that a large National Manufacturer will locate their office here on a parcel of land recently purchased through his Real Estate Firm. TRY AND GUESS THIS ONE, ANYBODY!

Cancer Society Issues Booklet On Smoking

A new pamphlet presenting the American Cancer Society's position on the relationship of cigarette smoking to cancer of the lung was received in the Walnut Creek branch office of the American Cancer Society this week, announced Dr. A. R. Reinke, president of the Contra Costa County branch.

The pamphlet's title is "Where We Stand Today on Cigarettes and Lung Cancer." It is available without charge from the Branch headquarters at 2363 Mt. Diablo Blvd., Walnut Creek, Dr. Reinke said.

A comprehensive 20 page treatment of the subject, "Shall I give up smoking?" the booklet says: "The American Cancer Society feels that this must be a personal decision based on evidence available today."

The evidence suggests that cigarettes are a health hazard. The specific effect of cigarette smoking on a particular individual cannot be predicted."

On the question of future plans, the pamphlet declares: "The American Cancer Society will continue to support research efforts to find out whether one or more substances in cigarettes, industrial fumes, gasoline and diesel engine exhausts, in dust from asphalt or bituminous roads, etc., actually cause lung cancer in man."

It concludes, "The Society will continue to present the evidence as it develops. The Society does not tell people not to smoke. But it intends to continue to provide the public with available information."

Drive Continues For Hungarians

Forty tons of clothing and $65,000 were contributed nationally for Hungarian Aid to the American Friends Service Committee in November, the San Francisco office of the Quaker organization announced today.

Present estimates are that a total of $250,000 and 100 additional tons of clothing will be needed by this one American agency before the end of winter.

In Contra Costa County, clothing contributions may be taken to the homes of Alan Young, 475 Muller Street, or Olive Gribb of 2235 Oakvale Road, both of Walnut Creek.

Also, contributions may be taken to Georgia and Oscar Busch, 910 Carl Street, Lafayette.

Eagles Note Anniversary

Charles B. Nussa Jr., president of the California State Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, addressed members of Mt. Diablo Aerie yesterday.

Nussa, prominent in the leadership councils of California Eagles, has served terms in several state offices as well as offices of Napa Aerie. He has been affiliated with the Eagles since 1929.

This was the 10th Anniversary of Mt. Diablo Aerie. Ten year pins were presented to charter members.

Chief of Police John B. Jordan was honored by Mt. Diablo Aerie with a civic service award. Jordan has been with the Walnut Creek Police Department for 18 years, and has been the chief of police for the past 10 years.

The meeting was held at the Walnut Creek Holy Ghost Association Hall, Boulevard Way and Saranap Road, Walnut Creek. Refreshments including an "Irish Stew" were served after the meeting.

The study will be conducted by a group of advanced toastmasters under the direction of Al Ingalls, aided by Arnold Nelson, Bill Williamson, Frank Curtis, John Phillips, and Ben Young.

420 Polio Patients to Benefit from Fund Drive

A check for $9150 has been received by the Contra Costa County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to provide financial aid for local polio patients, it was announced today by Don Blackwood, Chapter chairman.

This makes a total of $25,650 advanced to the chapter this year. Blackwood said that this county is one of nearly 500 in the nation where local March of Dimes funds are insufficient to cover polio-fighting needs.

"The Chapter's present financial plight is the result of the assistance it has given in the past to 420 patients who have required, and still require, costly care to give them a chance to recover their fullest capacities," he said.

"This number includes the severe respirator cases still in the hospital, eight patients with attendants on home care programs, those attending rehabilitation and therapy centers as well as patients of prior years now receiving surgery, new appliances and other aid."

"In the Salk vaccine we now have the means of bringing about the eventual control of new polio," Blackwood continued. "Age restrictions governing the use of the vaccine have now been removed.

It is safe, potent, and effective and can be administered by any physician. Those who have not yet received it should begin the series of inoculations immediately to be protected against paralytic polio next year.

"However, we must not forget those victims for whom the vaccine came too late," he emphasized.

"Our job in the conquest of polio will not be finished until polio is finished as a cripple of human beings and until further mass appeals to the American public are no longer necessary to insure the care of those who have been stricken."
